LOCATION

Hasselt

Hasselt: perfect place to unwind

Hasselt is the capital and largest city of the province of Limburg in the Flemish Region of Belgium. Split by the Demer River, Hasselt is the ideal place to immerse yourself in jenever culture or get away from other big cities. It's known for its friendly inhabitants and their dialect, which often sounds more like singing than talking.

Limburgers are generally known for being hospitable and friendly, and Hasselt strongly promotes that image. People often say that you are more likely to receive a warm welcome in Hasselt than in larger, more anonymous cities. Here, coziness is more important than anything else!

Since the 16th century, jenever has been distilled in and around Hasselt, initially on a small scale and later Hasselt experienced a boom with dozens of distilleries. Jenever was not just a drink, but part of everyday life and the local economy. The annual Jenever Festivals (October) reinforce this image. During these festivals, jenever is not only drunk, but also used in delicacies, cocktails, and even art projects.

Hasselt is not a megacity like Antwerp or Brussels. The city center is compact and cozy, giving people the feeling that "everyone knows everyone." This creates a village-like, yet urban atmosphere.

SOCIAL PROGRAM

Murder mystery: who killed BeeMSA?

As we all know, we had a dry and hot summer. For someone on the National Board, it got too hot. He/she got so overheated that our mascot BeeMSA paid for it with his life. Who is responsible for this murder? Was it one of the driven National Officers, someone from the all-knowing EB, or one of our reliable SupCos?

As part of the Social Program, we will search for the murderer together and you will get to know the National Board like never before!

For those who are not tired in the evening, there is always the option of going for a walk, having a drink together or playing a board game. There will be a new BeMSA board game available, which is definitely worth trying out!

Disclaimer: It is allowed to bring alcoholic beverages to the NGA, however the consumption must always be in line with the bylaws and Code of Conduct. Drinking and smoking during important meetings is forbidden.
